JONES LEADING IN WASHINGTON.

Judge Miller Wins in Contest in New York.

Democrats Name Woman for Secretary of State.

Schuyler Ahead in Colorado Senatorial Fight.

JUDGE MILLER WINS.

Seattle (Wash.) Sept. 15.—U. S. Senator Wesley L. Jones, seeking renomination on the Republican ticket, was leading William L. Ingles, his nearest opponent, by more than 2 to 1 on returns compiled late today from more than half the precincts of the State in yesterday's primary elections.

Gov. Louis F. Hart, candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket, led Roland H. Hartley, Everett, by more than 4,900 votes.

JUDGE MILLER WINS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Republican and Democratic candidates who received the endorsement of the suffrage committee division in Saratoga, won decisive victories in all State-wide contests in yesterday's New York State primary.

With 2540 districts missing out of a total of 7,200 in the State, New York Miles of Saratoga, State Senator George F. Thompson of Niagara for Republican nomination for Governor by 77,712 votes. Senator Thompson's name, however, will appear on the ballot November 2 as the Prohibition candidate for Governor.

Gov. Smith was renominated without opposition by the Democrats. U. S. Senator Wadsworth backed by the Republican State organization, won an easy victory.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Thomas W. Miller, head of the eastern division of the speakers' bureau of the Republican National Committee, announced tonight that Senator Harding would speak in Baltimore Sept. 27; in Wheeling, W. Va., on September 28, and in Ashland, Ky., September 29.

Lieut.-Gov. Harry C. Walker apparently defeated Mayor George R. Lunn or Schenectady for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator by a vote of more than 2 to 1.

Harriet May Mills, unopposed Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, won one of the two Senate seats.

Comptroller P. K. Hale was renominated by the Republicans in the Second District.

The complete returns from yesterday's primary indicated that a run-off primary would be necessary to determine the Senatorial nominees.

Jared Y. Sanders of Binghamton, former Governor and Congressman from the Sixth District, and Edwin S. Brouard of New Iberia, would finish less than a thousand votes apart.

Andrew J. McHone had a majority of 1,278 over Martin Behrman in the New Orleans Mayoralty election.

SCHUYLER IN COLORADO.

DENVER, Sept. 15.—With all but 450 out of 1,000 precincts in the State tabulated, Karl C. Schuyler of Denver tonight leads. Samuel D. Nicholson of Leadville by 2,414 in yesterday's primary contest for Republican nomination for United States Senator.

With Denver complete and 866 rates.

precincts over the State, the vote stood: Nicholson 26,761 and Schuyler 29,112. According to returns completed in the Rocky Mountain State, Rice W. Means was running far behind. Schuyler's lead in Denver was $156.

James M. Collins, Nonpartisan League candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, maintained a growing lead over Robert Higgins, former State Treasurer. Judge Tully Scott and W. R. Callicott of Carrollton were running a close race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator. Callicott is the Nonpartisan League candidate.

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) Sept. 15.—The Democratic State Convention today adopted a platform endorsing President Wilson and his administration and condemning the Republican Congress, as well as the "Senate of the South," a plan of action for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator. Callicott is the Nonpartisan League candidate.

FAR EAST WILL AID AMERICANS.

Great Foreign Outlet, States Thomas W. Lamont.

People of China Looking to United States.

Military Rule in Japan Keeps People Down.

BY A. P. DAY WIRE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Far East bids fair to become the greatest foreign outlet in the world for American manufacture and enterprise. It properly developed by our business men and investors, declared Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co. today, following his return from the Orient, where he participated in formation of the new consortium to place China on a firm economic foundation. His address was delivered before the American Manufacturers' Association.

European nations have learned, he said, that the policy of the warship and "grab" is outward, and that they can best serve their own interests and those of China by stopping the race for concessions and by adopting plans of co-operation.

LOOK TO AMERICA.

Financial assistance is to be given China by the new consortium, composed of strong banking groups in Britain, America and the United States. Mr. Lamont declared the consortium was formed on the American basis of a free and full partnership, and he thought it should stabilize China, which he said, was looking to America as her guide, her counsellor and her friend.

"A great system of railroads must be built out there, and in particular west China, would require considerable American steel, bridges, equipment, farming implements, cotton mill and mining machinery, and many other things."

"To keep 400,000,000 people supplied with moving-picture shows," he added, "will be quite a task even for Americans."

"Siberia is in need of American machinery and methods," he continued, "as well as men who would develop its rich agricultural, timber and mining resources. It is readily able to support 100,000,000 persons though its present population is only 12,000,000."

PEOPLE LANDHOLDERS.

"The Russian soviets have gained a foothold there, but the Simon pure brand of Bolshevism has not flourished. The people of Siberia already are landholders."

Japan is commercially handicapped, Mr. Lamont said, by the policy of the so-called military party, whose philosophy of force clashes with the liberal ideas of Japan's manufacturers, great merchants and bankers.

The business men believe their nation's development should be along lines of peaceful trade and the cultivation of good will within the entire party which controls their affairs, has been so strong as almost to constitute an actual supergovernment, still thinks the world is ruled by force rather than by ideas.

"At the moment the policy, which has resulted in tremendous taxation to maintain the army and navy, will prevent American co-operation on a large scale in developing Japan's industrial potentialities."

Referring to the immigration difficulties with Japan, Mr. Lamont thought the United States ought to be able to devise a formula that would meet the view of California and at the same time measurably satisfy the Japanese.

BY A. P. DAY WIRE!
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Negotiations between the American and Japanese governments regarding the Japanese immigration and Sakhalin occupation question are still continuing.

It was learned today that Kihuro Shidare, the Japanese Ambassador has been empowered by his government to conduct the negotiations directly with Secretary Colby.

PRESS REPORTS DENIED.

BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS:
TOKIO, Sept. 15.—Newspaper reports that Viscount Uchida, Foreign Minister, told members of the opposition party yesterday that the fact that America had not responded to his demands regarding the island of Saghalien was considered tantamount to American approval of the Japanese position, are denied at the Foreign Office.

It is said that the Foreign Minister may have told his caller that Japan had answered the American note relative to the presence of Japanese forces in the Russian section of the island.

VARIOUS INTERPRETATIONS.

There have been various press interpretations of Viscount Uchida's remarks in an answer to a question relative to the Japanese children in Hawaii studying the Japanese language and possible objection on the part of America. It is officially stated that the Foreign Minister said it was true that the Japanese children in Hawaii were learning their mother tongue outside of the public schools in Hawaii, and that personally he saw no reason why there should be any interference in this work. He added the matter was now subject to negotiations between the American and Japanese governments.

TO WITHDRAW TROOPS.

Reports that it has been decided to withdraw Japanese troops from Khabarovsk, Siberia, are confirmed by the Foreign Office, which explains Khabarovsk was occupied by the Japanese after the fall of Nikolaevek, at the mouth of the Amur river, was under control of Japanese armed forces but that Nikolaevek is being evacuated because of the extreme cold which prevails there during the winter.

The future policy to be pursued relative to the occupation of the two cities depends upon circum-

MINERALS AND LIQUOR George to Meet.

PARIS (A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NOV. 14.—Recent pacification of the war-like Yaqui Indians of the Mexican State of Sonora has allowed the State authorities to turn from one of their worst problems to new tasks of developing irrigation projects and providing homes and crops, Gov. Flavio A. Berquez of Sonora recently told The Associated Press.

"Pacifying the Yaqui Indians solves the greatest problem Sonora has had to meet," he said. "These Indians have been a thorn in the side of the Sonora and the Mexican governments for eighty-eight years."

"We have finally succeeded in getting the Indians to give up their lands to them and providing them with food, clothing and materials for farming. This was accomplished through the efforts of President De La Torre, Secretary of War Callas and myself."

Yaqui chiefs recently conferred with me here and assured me that the Indians are completely pacified and ready to settle down and grow crops on reservation lands we have provided for them. The government has set aside between 20,000 and 30,000 acres of the finest land in the famous Yaqui Valley for their use as a reservation.

"Many of the irrigation ditch systems have been rebuilt by the government so the Indians can have water. New ditches have been opened and more will be built with federal and State funds."

"Actually, we hope to irrigate more than a million acres of land. The project will cost not less than ten millions and will require three or four years to complete."

"The first step in the work will be to construct a dam across the waters of the Sonora River. Long term loans are expected to finance the plan."

"Irrigation is the basic of Sonora's water power, only needed to reclaim vast areas of Sonora land which is as good and even better than the famous Imperial Valley."

"Schools are as vital to the welfare of the Indians as water and we are making extensive plans for school extension. Included in our new budget is $2,500,000 for schools."

"The new era has dawned in Mexico and especially in Sonora. The government is on a business basis and we will welcome the world to the State to help us in our rebuilding."

BY A. P. DAY WIRE!

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Sept. 15.—A great British flag draped on the wall above the platform in the hotel in which were assembled the delegates to the convention of the International Union of Railroads here, operating railroads here today caused the suspension of business until it was replaced by the American colors.

The convention passed a resolution urging the British trade unions to demand the immediate release of such as Ireland, Indochna, French freedom and urging the release of Lord Mayor Terence MacSwiney of Cork, from Brixton prison.

RECOGNITION OF MEXICO URGED.

*Arizona Commercial Bodies Believe in Republic.Assert Country Now on a Stable Political Basis.Prophecy of Era of Prosperity in Resolution.EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
YUMA, Sept. 15.—The Yuma County Commercial Club has passed resolutions expressive of the belief of its members that Mexico now is on a stable political basis and is worthy of recognition by the United States.

Statement is made that Obregon, De la Huerta, Calles and Rodriguez, having sprung up in the new government, are far better men than the Senora, being neighbors to the people of Southern Arizona, and are known to many members of the organization and citizens of Yuma as men of high ideals and of great administrative and executive ability, in whom they have the utmost confidence.

There is prophecy in the resolution of an era of prosperity for Mexico, which is bound to come with the development of her mineral and diversified resources. Similar resolutions have been passed by Tucson, Nogales and Douglas commercial bodies.

COMPULSION RULE LIFTED.GLOBE, Sept. 15.—A degree of revolution against the laws of the State is contained in the determination of the Globe High School trustees to lift all compulsion from attendance on the military drill prescribed by the Arizona statutes for the school year.

The trustees explain their action by stating that the State has made no provision for uniforms and expressing their opinion that the time spent in drill better could be put into the gymnasium work. Students who may carry their uniforms with uniforms and may appear for drill. There appears to be appreciation that the trustees are violating the law, but they appear to be acting to improve the morale of the course. They have sent their defiance to the State Adjutant-General.

The State has an officer detailed to such drill work and Col. C. C. U. S. A. retired, lately was detailed by the War Department as act as inspector of cadet corps in instruction in Arizona.

TO START LAND FIGHT.PHOENIX, Sept. 15.—Dr. E. R. Perrin of Williams, himself the largest landowner of Arizona, has made arrangements that he will take an active part in the fall campaign with the State Land Commission as his subject.

He states that about 3,000,000 acres of grazing lands have been leased to ranchmen in Arizona in such manner that alternate sections within the railroad land grants can be utilized without cost and that the leases have been renewed even before they expire thus shortening the lease period.

Thus, he claims, the State has been deprived of large revenues from increased rentals and land has been taken that should have been allotted to landowners of contiguous lands.

Certain of the cattlemen are unmerciful to have given strong backing at the primary to interests believed dependable in a fight against Gov. Campbell, who has favored a broad interpretation of the state land laws, an open field for bidding and the formulation of Land Board regulations that will serve to give the State a larger income from its lands.

GAS COST RISES.MESA, Sept. 15.—Municipal ownership of the Mesa gas plant has not conduced toward lessened costs. Hereafter gas will be sold to consumers at $5 per 1000 feet. Manager J. S. Williams reported to the City Council that all costs have risen to such an extent that the plant was operating at a loss.NEW ICE PLANT.*BENSON, Sept. 15.—A sixty-five-ton ice plant is to be built in Benson in the spring by the Apache Powder Company, which will need ice for its men and works at Land station, south of this point. It has been determined that Benson offered favorable site for the works in the sale of surplus product.MARRIAGE IS RUN ON FIFTY-FIFTY BASIS.*PARTNERSHIP APPLIES TO BOTH BILLS AND HOUSE WORK, SAYS WIFE.*EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.*NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The married life of Madeline Z. Doty, magazine writer and reformer, and Roger N. Baldwin, sociologist, is run on a fifty-fifty basis without discord.

"We wrote our own marriage agreement," says Miss Doty, "in addition to the civil ceremony. We tried to make a plain statement of our understanding and obligations of marriage as we see it and now we are trying to live up to it on the partnership basis."

But how about this fifty-fifty angle? Is she still a working woman or does she still support him?

Miss Doty still supports herself by her writing and her home is as beautiful as conscientious care can make it.

Payments of $200,000 now for two years will amount to $400,000.

Thereafter for fourteen years the yearly tax on the $100,000 will be $400,000, till the full loan is covered.

The power system is now returning $400,000 yearly and is expected in time to make full repayment of the project cost by 1937.

TRUCK ROUTE BAD.

There has been much speculation locally concerning the route that is to be taken by this month by the Army motor truck transport due here September 21. The schedule calls for a route north of the Gila, westward, through Agua Caliente, crossing the stream at Wellton. The road is bad and one of the best and the poor roads would be in sad plight for the passage of the last truck of the long convoy.

In the event the way is found impracticable, there is now a possibility that the route will be shifted eastward beyond Fair Verde, turning after passing the Hassayampa, to the Gila. Crossing is said to be hard and good. Thence the way would be by Gila Bend and Seville, probably the Gila on the south. Gila Bend is forty-two miles north of Ajo, through which there was suggestion on Tuesday that the route be changed.

There is to be entertainment here for the officers and men of the convoy, who, especially of the company of the motor drivers.

GAS COST RISES.

MESA, Sept. 15.—Municipal ownership of the Mesa gas plant has not conduced toward lessened costs. Hereafter gas will be sold to consumers at $5 per 1000 feet. Manager J. S. Williams reported to the City Council that all costs have risen to such an extent that the plant was operating at a loss.NEW ICE PLANT.*BENSON, Sept. 15.—A sixty-five-ton ice plant is to be built in Benson in the spring by the Apache Powder Company, which will need ice for its men and works at Land station, south of this point. It has been determined that Benson offered favorable site for the works in the sale of surplus product.MARRIAGE IS RUN ON FIFTY-FIFTY BASIS.*PARTNERSHIP APPLIES TO BOTH BILLS AND HOUSE WORK, SAYS WIFE.*EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.*NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The married life of Madeline Z. Doty, magazine writer and reformer, and Roger N. Baldwin, sociologist, is run on a fifty-fifty basis without discord.

"We wrote our own marriage agreement," says Miss Doty, "in addition to the civil ceremony. We tried to make a plain statement of our understanding and obligations of marriage as we see it and now we are trying to live up to it on the partnership basis."

But how about this fifty-fifty angle? Is she still a working woman or does she still support him?

Miss Doty still supports herself by her writing and her home is as beautiful as conscientious care can make it.

Payments of $200,000 now for two years will amount to $400,000.

Thereafter for fourteen years the yearly tax on the $100,000 will be $400,000, till the full loan is covered.

The People and Their Daily Troubles

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

Marrying Mother.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

The young man was raving to me about the charms and graces of his fiancee.

"She seems a miracle of perfection," I said, "but what sort of mother has she got?"

"Oh," he replied airily, "her mother is about everything I object to in the female sex, but then, you see, I am marrying the girl; I am not marrying her mother."

"Ah," I said sadly, "there's where you are making a fatal blunder, son. You are not only marrying the girl's mother, but you are marrying her mother and her mother's mother and her mother, and all of her female ancestors all the way back to the first woman."

"And I am not talking about heredity, either, though the call of the blood seems stronger in women than it does in men. I am talking about the environment in which a girl is reared and which molds her character into the form of whatever ideals and principles her mother cherishes."

For the mother makes the home, and all the plastic years of her life, a well-kept house. The little girl is shut up within the confines of the home. Her mother is her oracle and what her mother teaches her by word of mouth and example is ingrained into every fiber of her being. A mother and daughter are far more intimate than a father and son ever are. A mother influences her daughter far more than a father influences a son.

In every family there are certain traditions and precepts that are handed down from mother to daughter through generations, and these form the code whose laws are as unbreakable as the law of the Medes and the Persians.

Home and early influences put no such indelible stamp upon a boy as they do upon a girl. You often see a man who is no more like his wife than if he had not a drop of their blood in his veins, and who thinks and acts entirely differently from his father, but a girl nearly always runs true to form. What her mother is, she becomes, whether her mother made her stay or not.

Therefore, son, give mother the once-over very carefully before you propose to mother's daughter. Also cast an appraising eye on mother's husband. For if mother is a good woman, he will be, and as mother's husband is so will be your fate unless some mishap happens.

Maud may be all that your fondest fancy craves. She may be pretty, and sweet, and so amiable that the proudest butler would not melt in her mouth. But all the same, look at Maud's mother. Is mother sloppy, and slouchy, and shiftless? Is her house always in confusion? Does she sit in the parlor and need sweeping under? Are the curtains crying aloud for soap and water?

Don't marry Maud unless you want to live in the same disorder and dirt, for Maud has been brought up to be lazy, shiftless and untidy, and she will always think you are

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Rosy After-Glow.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Probably very few of our city's population know Crocker street. It doesn't look in the least like the Los Angeles we so proudly praise and glory. It hangs like a tree, not along straight lines, but crooked, twisted, to look like a vine. Those who have looked on death, anyway; and who haven't yet "come back."

But in a hospital there are some four-score or our boys—a small residue of the aftermath of Europe and its world experiences. One hobble around on crutches; he always will. Another . . . But there's no need to be explicit. It's not uncommon anywhere, since the war.

"One must expect such disabilities," many will say. In fact, my dear reader exclaimed, when I spoke of this matter, "Goodness," she cried as I told of lads held fast to bed or four walls, "I hope they're not complaining!"

"No, they're not. But, I leave it to you who read this."

Wouldn't you—wonder, a little, if you had gone, voluntarily, to make the world a nice place to live in had been forgotten, overlooked in a small corner of the world?

I rather think you'd—wonder.

And then boys are overlooked.

Forgotten. The doctors do all they can. The nurses, also. But when one has no friends in town, who is sure that his daughter that clothes are the most important thing on earth to a woman, and that she must get them no matter how she gets them. In her eyes come Maud was tough to worship the great god

Appearances, and when the great god of appearances, the hand playing—were over. I'm sorry to say, mighty few.

And this is not right. If those who read will visualize that advertisement where a man points to his wife and says, "Look at me! I've got a hump-shouldered wife!" he's not that deprecating, hopeless, futile, impotent, humppecked man—the man who is the master of his wife? If you don't want to understudy him, beware of leading him to the altar. She has been laughed at. Her husband is a good husband (Arizona divorce) didn't go to the altar. He didn't go down. Can't you? You who ride every Sunday, if not every day:

"Don't take a boy or two every once a while; and make some of these white-faced, old, lads have tanned cheeks and smiling lips once more."

ALICE HARRIMAN.

A RECENT SPOT.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Our Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children unless you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Children Cry For

Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Of Course You Love Your Baby.

You love it because of its very helplessness, because it can't tell you what is the matter when it feels bad. It can only cry and look to you for help. But the more you love baby, the more you want to help baby, the more you ought to realize what a wonderful remedy Fletcher's Castoria is. It has been used for babies' ailments for over thirty years.

An experienced doctor discovered Fletcher's Castoria especially for babies' use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. Doctors who know what is safe and best for babies have only good to say of it.

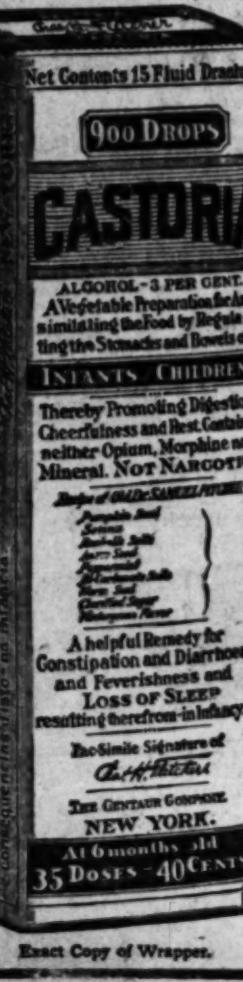

Don't neglect your baby. Get a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria and give baby a few doses of it. See how the little one smiles at you as if trying to thank you for helping it. Soon you will learn to depend on Fletcher's Castoria, made just for Infants and Children, and of course you would not think of using anything for them that was not prepared especially for Infants and Children. So keep it in the house.

Young Artist Makes Fortune Sketching Usual Surgical Operations.

T

HOUGH comparatively few

the title of "old have been recognized as allies. But even in this list it is doubtful if one would gain the name of Genevieve Meakin, artist of individual type,

designed for scientific rather than purely artistic purposes.

Miss Meakin is the distinction of being one of the few "dissecting room artists" in the world.

Miss Meakin, her naturally, uncle, L. H. Meakin, being an artist of international reputation.

She studied art, however, and had found that she had a remarkable aptitude for sketching. So, in the beginning of 1918 Miss Meakin commenced to sketch bodies in the operating rooms of Cincinnati Hospital to take up the study of scientific art in earnest.

Before she was twenty-one she was commissioned to sketch the details of the more complicated operations, at the same time as she was as he worked and making picture notes of each incision.

These were then reduced to size and made into a series of moving picture of the entire process in order that other surgeons might follow the operations exactly as they had been present.

"My profession is not one which I could call a profession," says Miss Meakin, "but from the purely commercial side it pays better than any art is of benefit to humanity as well."

Story of Modern Bread Making—Chapter XVII.

Sanitary Cooling of Bread

READ, when taken hot from the oven, is like a sponge. If ill odors, disease germs, or other impurities are in the air, the bread is apt to absorb them.

For this reason the cooling of bread in the same room in which it is sold over the counter to the consumer, is not wise.

Crowds are dangerous carriers of disease germs. In the average crowd of bread buyers there may be people who come from homes where typhoid fever, diphtheria, measles, and other dangerous diseases are in progress. Such persons carry the germs in their clothing, and should never be admitted to a room where hot bread is cooling.

At our bakery the bread is cooled not in a stuffy room directly off of the public sidewalk, but in a private, sanitary room where precautions are taken to admit only fresh, pure air.

In buying HOLSUM Bread you can be certain that during the cooling process it has had no chance to absorb impurities.

HOLSUM Bread is truly "The Perfect Balanced Ration" "Made With Milk and Honey"

BY VIRGINIA WOODS

After Rehearsal.

After a rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Marie McCoy and Mr. Charles Frederick Kammerer, which is to take place Saturday afternoon, Dr. and Mrs. John Rush McCoy of 301 South Wilton Place will give a Dutch supper on Friday evening for a company of eighteen, including the bride and the bridal party.

The guests will be Misses Byrd Wallis, Margaret Leonard, Gladys Lobinger, Mary Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morrison, Miss Gertrude Kammerer, Dr. Charles Hartley, Walter Reeves, Clyde Burr and one or two others.

Mr. Kammerer came from Pennsylvania on Tuesday and he and his bride met yesterday at Catalina. The wedding is to take place at 5:30 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Craig McCoy, and will be in the garden.

By Mrs. Hutchinson.

Mr. W. G. Hutchinson, who is back in his home at 699 South New Hampshire street after an absence of two years, is to give a luncheon on Saturday which will be the first of a series she has planned.

In San Francisco.

Mr. Arthur MacFarland, accompanied by his cousin, Capt. Charles Grunsky, a member of the Railroad Commission, motored up to San Francisco on Tuesday and yesterday joined Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Scott, who were at the tennis tournament in Del Monte. They will all return home together next week. Mrs. Charles H. Sharp is expected home this week.

Back from Motor Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Flint, Jr., and their daughters, Misses Muriel, Anna, Katherine, and Gladys, and their company with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Beck, have returned from a motor trip through the northern part of the State. And yesterday Mrs. Flint and Miss Muriel left for the East where Mrs. Flint will put her young daughter at school at Mt. Vernon Seminary in Washington, D. C. Mr. Flint and the other two girls will remain at their summer home at Pebble Beach until the last of October and Mrs. Flint will be back in November. On the motor trip they visited Lake Tahoe, crossed the Sierras and visited several days in San Francisco, stopping at Pebble Beach for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Flint are to remain in the East until February and so will resume their Sunday afternoon tour after October 1. Their residence studio has for many years been the headquarters for interesting personages of both the social and musical worlds.

Noon Wedding.

At noon yesterday Miss Victoria Warner and Milton Lyman Conant were married at Dr. George S. Kengott at his home at 1015 South Gramercy Place. Miss Bertha Fisher was maid of honor and Frank Golding was best man. Howard C. Galloupe and Charles M. Conant were the ushers. The house was beautifully decorated and the ceremony performed in the large music room which is in American style. The couple stood before an altar of tall palms and huge floor baskets filled with gladiolas, that toned into the American Beauty shades. All kinds of vines and flowers were used with an abundance of fall blossoms. The bride wore a gown of white charmeuse satin with a long tulle veil wreathed in orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of birds' nests and violets.

The maid of honor was frocked in pale blue taffeta and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink sweet peas. Mrs. Kengott presided at the wedding and played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." Fifty guests witnessed the ceremony.

By Dr. and Mrs. Castles.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Guido Castles are to be hosts at a large reception and musical on Sunday evening at the Hotel Castle San Simeon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roberts. Last Sunday evening they were hosts at another function in honor of Ralph Modjeska, noted engineer and son of the late Mine, Helena Modjeska. Mr. Victor Carly entertained with them, the affair being in the nature of a musical.

After-Theater Supper.

Miss Amelia Hogan was last evening hostess at an after-theater supper party at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Garrett Lansing Hogan of the West Adams section. Guests were plated for ten. Next Thursday she is to give a luncheon. Miss Hogan will leave October 2 for New York, where she will enter L'Ecole Francais, a very fashionable girls' school.

By Mr. and Mrs. Carey.

In compliment to their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. James Eben Carey of Omaha, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carey are to give a reception on Saturday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Carey are to leave early next week for Milwaukee, Wis., where he is to be connected with the Marquette University. For the first time in six years the Carey family circle is complete.

By Mr. and Mrs. Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dixon of 3030 Orange avenue, Monterey Park, were hosts at a dinner party in honor of Miss Mary Emma Preston and her fiance, Eugene Manly of Hermosa Beach. Mrs. Herbert E. Worcester, mother of the bride-elect, was also a guest.

Motor Party.

Dr. and Mrs. Granville MacGowan and Miss Eleanor MacGowan, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun Drake and Mrs. Mary Wilcox Longstreet, who have been at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco visiting, left the first of the week for Victoria, B. C. and will make back to the Bay City for another visit before returning home.

In San Francisco.

Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant and her daughter, Miss Susanne Bryant of this city, nieces of Delorah Bixby of Long Beach, have been domiciled at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco several days. Mrs. Bryant having gone north to place the two girls in Miss Ransome's school in Piedmont.

Persons.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Layton, prominent residents of Washington, D. C., are here for the fall and winter and are domiciled at the Rambart Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thompson of Fremont Place are back from Big Bear.

Mr. Orson Hulett and Miss Annie Anderson of Salt Lake are guests of Miss Minnie Wilson of New Hampshire street.

Mrs. F. W. Enderly left yesterday for an extended vacation in Europe.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Stollman have gone to Minneapolis, Minn., where he is to be in attendance at the Roentgen Ray convention. He is president of the western division of the Roentgen Ray Society and is one of its oldest members.

Record Flight Made on Coast by Dirigibles.

Making a record trip from North Island, San Diego, to Los Angeles in two hours and forty-five minutes, two Navy dirigibles, the C-6, and B-18, piloted by Lieut. R. J. Miller, and Lieut. T. MacDonald, respectively, landed yesterday at the Good-year Field at 9:30 a.m. After the crew had landed both "ships" hopped off at 1:30 p.m. for the return journey to San Diego. Capt. Harry Mustin and Capt. Tomb, commanding officers of the naval station, were passengers.

The naval officers reported that the cruise up the coast was attended with the best of weather conditions. The largest of the two dirigibles carries a crew of six men, is 200 feet long, has a speed rating of fifty knots per hour, and a gas capacity of 200,000 cubic feet.

And Now Have Come to Bullock's Two New Models in

"Mistress Mary" Dresses of Jap Crepe—at $12.50

—and "Mistress Mary" Dresses wield a dainty and a most picturesque sovereignty among the tubable dresses in That Section, at Bullock's. That Is Given Over to Inexpensive Wash Frocks for Women—Across the Bridgeway, Third Floor.

—A pleasant thing to remember about "Mistress Mary" Dresses is that they are made of Japanese Crepe—the tried-and-true cotton weave which comes in such likable Far Eastern colors and washes so very well;

—The two New Models have been pictured: The one at the right is a straight, simple thing, youthful in its every line; and is fashioned of that vibrant, red-brown shade known as "Aztec." Its pockets are rather flamboyant, "sticky-out" affairs, yet it has accepted the gentle coralling of a little black patent leather belt.

—The "Mistress Mary" Dress at the left is a combination of bisque and turquoise blue crepe. The bisque crepe is used to bind the "bib-apron" of the dress; and this quaint and unusual line is further emphasized by a row of appliquéd crepe posies in contrasting shades—that remind one of the gay "dream posies" that inhabit children's books, and that are as charming as they!

—"Mistress Mary" Dresses come in various other models and in sizes 14 to 40; and are

Bullock's Flannel Store is Ready With New Fall Flannels

—for sportswear; for suits; for separate coats; for separate skirts; for tailored shirts; and for underwear—different kinds of flannels, various colors, white, figured, striped and checked flannels, covering, probably, all apparel for which this satisfying weave, in its variations, is used.

—Flannel Features for Thursday Will Be:

—Imported Jersey-Weave Flannel at $3.00

—They are woven in circular, plain center-and-border designs, the borders including ivy-and-scroll; tulip-and-scroll; ribbon-and-grapevine.

Then, there will also be:

50 Dozen Napkins.

Matching the Cloths

—in the 22x22-inch size, at $17.50 a dozen. Prices of both cloths and napkins are less than they can be woven for today.

—You will find Bullock's splendidly ready with linens from three weavers of linens of international fame:

—John S. Brown

—Ireland Brothers

—Old Bleach.

Bullock's Linen Store, Second Floor.

—Light-weight Shirting Flannels at $1.50

—come in stripes and plain colors and are 31 inches wide.

Bullock's for Laces

Klearflax Linen Carpet---at Bullock's

—The most durable of all floor coverings; suitable for any room, office or storeroom; comes in soft shades of blue, green and taupe; in 3, 6, 9 and 12 foot widths; being featured Thursday in Bullock's Carpet Section.

—Care that should be taken in the furnishing of the floor covering for the office or store is often neglected; the result is oftentimes disastrous. Harmony in the decorations of the office or store sometimes closes a deal or makes a sale.

Bullock Splendid Wool Chenille Carpets are highly desirable for living room, dining rooms and breakfast rooms; used in any room they carry an air of richness that when coupled to their serviceability is worth considering. To be obtained in 6, 9 and 12 foot widths in colors to harmonize with almost any color scheme—on the Sixth Floor—at Bullock's.

THE UNMUZZLED.
Washington and Tokyo may be able to settle the Jap problem to their mutual satisfaction, but who is going to hang the ball and chain on Sacramento?

PARKING POTATOES.
Nebraska has the largest potato crop the State has ever known. And already we had noticed a slight descent in the prices of the spuds. Ladies and gentlemen, let us all stand up and give three amiable cheers for William Jennings Bryan. He did it.

D EPARTED SPIRITS.
The theft of the contents of a carload of whisky on the journey from New Orleans to Kansas City without breaking the seals on the car would indicate that some of the spirit movers had gotten into the game. This sounds like the cabinet trick that marked the movement of departed spirits in other days.

THE GOAT BLEATS.
The chairman of the Democratic National Committee, George White, says that Maine was a luxury which his party could not afford, but they will keep on fighting, barefooted, and on an empty stomach. A party which is carrying over 200,000 unnecessary officeholders cannot plead poverty and get away with it. After the November election the party of the black sheep will find only a White goat.

SKY BATHING.

A new line of airships to carry sixteen passengers each will be equipped with Pullman berths and shower baths, but why a man should get up in the air a couple of miles to take a shower bath is not explained. After while the passengers will be cutting the cards for choice of individual clouds. Each man will harpoon his cloud and lasso it to the plane while he takes his bath in it. The American simply must have his bath. If the Golden City doesn't have a plunge and a shower on every floor the American will take a chance on there being hot springs and a Turkish at the other place.

SMALL POWER CONVENTIONS.

Under the State primary law the party conventions are made up of the successful candidates on the State and Congressional tickets. Under this acceptance the once powerful Progressive party will have its State convention at Sacramento next Monday with but one delegate in attendance. He is the man who was nominated as a Progressive for Assemblyman from an Oakland district. The Prohibition convention at the same time will have two delegates—Charles H. Randall and Marie C. Brum. Randall is also a delegate to the Democratic gathering, but this year the Republican convention, which he desired most of all, denied him. He will only have to be in two places at once, which is not much of a trick with a man of the Randall adaptability.

NO PEACE WANTED.

One of the Bolshevik delegates to the Riga conference says that they want peace with Poland, but only on conditions which would make it permanent. He lies as he speaks. His Bolshevikism doesn't want peace of any kind. Even the complete and abject surrender of the opposition does not mean peace. There must still be a harring. If the opposition is forced to accept Bolshevikism as its creed it is at once mobilized for warlike service in another field. Bolshevikism must live as lives the tiger. There is a passion for blood-letting. The Reds do not want an enduring peace any more than did Attila. Under the test of peace Communism falls. Any peace treaty signed by Lenin or Trotsky would not be worth a whimper in Gehenna.

SEVERITY NEEDED.

Killing and maiming of pedestrians by autos continue and Los Angeles maintains its unpleasant precedence as a city of accidents. Machines not only run down people in the streets, but they pursue their victims to the curb and even climb on the sidewalks to get them. One man, whose funeral has just been held, was taking a rest by sitting on the curb when he was run over. Other people who are recovering from injuries were deliberately run down by an intoxicated driver who drove his motor into a crowd, waiting to board a street car. There is absolutely no excuse for this last form of crime, yet it is happening practically every day in Los Angeles. The Vigilantes, of whom the newspapers made as much a few weeks ago, are no longer vigilant, and selfish motorists threaten the lives of street-car passengers every minute. The Police Court judges could be of more assistance in helping to put a stop to infractions of the traffic regulations. The majority of autoists undoubtedly keep within the law. Those who break the rules, especially if they do so wilfully, should be dealt with severely. Yet what do we find? Judges let flagrant offenders off with fines instead of sending them to jail. One youth who was convicted ofreckless driving was given a sentence of six months in jail and fined $100. That sounded fine—a good example. But the judge who passed that sentence took away the sting by suspending the jail term. Of course, the youth quickly raised the $100. He and others would have been taught a lesson had the original sentence been allowed to stand. The Police Court judges should stiffen their backs and their sentences!

THE WHITE HOUSE VIEW.

Secretary Tumulty has given to the world the Wilsonian reflection on the Maine election. He says it will result in "dispelling any feeling of overconfidence" on the part of the Democrats. "Overconfidence" is right. It required the shock of a solid Republican Congress delegation from Maine and the heaviest Republicans plurality in the history of the State to bring the White House to a realization that the solemn referendum is not proceeding as projected, that something has gone wrong with the steering machinery.

Two weeks before the Maine election the President sent three Cabinet officers to explain to the voters of the Pine Tree State the nature of the referendum desired—in short, to tell them how to vote. The reclusive of the White House is evidently disturbed to find that his admonitions were not heeded, that the "men of little intellects," whom he but lately scorned, were better campaigners than his own elect.

He now admits that his "feeling of overconfidence" has been dispelled, that he has been disillusioned. He probably figures that he is living in the midst of a whole generation of "little intellects." For the first time he views the possibility that the "solemn referendum" is in danger of failing to carry. Washington correspondents have written to their newspapers that the President contemplates getting into the campaign through the medium of a series of public letters; but some add sententiously that the President cannot well do so until he receives an invitation from Gov. Cox and that the invitation has not yet been forthcoming.

Gov. Cox himself is beginning to weaken, and his independent supporters are falling away from him. When the Republican convention failed to nominate Herbert Hoover, Life, one of his independent supporters, began to publish editorials favoring Cox, influenced probably by its ardent desire to see this country accept membership in the League of Nations. But Life has warned of Cox's harping about campaign funds and failing to make a statesmanlike campaign. So Life has turned critical and tells its readers plainly in the current issue that "the campaign-funds sensation is well enough as an item of campaigning, but he won't win the fight on anything like that."

Gov. Cox himself has not been displaying any symptoms of the overconfidence that, prior to the Maine election, pervaded the atmosphere of the White House. He is a practical man; and when he sees odds of three to one offered on his opponent, under the noses of Boss Murphy and his Tammany machine, he is plainly aware that something is wrong with his campaign. Short-enders at long odds are not generally addicted to overconfidence. According to Secretary Tumulty's statement the "supreme confidence" which the President expressed in his Jackson Day letter is rapidly evaporating. It was "overconfidence" before the Maine election and, unless the campaign takes a different trend, it will shortly cease to be confidence of any sort.

MANUFACTURED NEWS.

Tolstol and Turgenev first brought to the western world a realization that the Slav peoples possess a fund of imagination which makes of them a race of rare romancers. Their crudity is continually encroaching on their judgment and the more startling an innovation the more likely they are to give it credence.

Just now warning branches of the Slavs are waging a romantic conflict that prevents obtaining correct information as to what is actually occurring in Eastern Europe. Lenin and Trotsky maintain a propaganda bureau and have abolished all the publications in Soviet Russia that are not under government control. These propagandists devote their whole time to manufacturing reports concerning the success of the communist experiment and the victories of the Red armies. The propaganda serves a double object; it furnishes material to the Bolshevik emissaries in other countries to bolster up their campaigns for industrial revolution and helps to deceive the Russian people concerning world conditions. The dispatches are as much a stranger to Truth as though she were a resident of another planet.

Another bureau is maintained by the Wrangel government in South Russia. They can no more see any right in Communism than the paid propagandists of Lenin and Trotsky can see wrong in it; and they are inclined to be equally unscrupulous in the reports they send out to the world concerning the successes of the democratic forces under Gen. Wrangel and the destruction of their Soviet enemies. At the present time the Red propaganda is wired to Western Europe and America from Berlin, while the White or Wrangel propaganda generally emanates from Constantinople.

It is but natural that the reports of these warring propagandists should conflict, for, while the Reds are the worse, the Whites are not wholly free from guile. On Sunday night a Berlin dispatch carried a Soviet report telling of the "almost total destruction" of the forces of Gen. Wrangel in Southern Russia. A dispatch from Constantinople of the same date reported "severe fighting near Polozki, where an entire Bolshevik brigade, including the staff, was captured. Under such conditions The Times advises its readers that it cannot assume any responsibility for the truthfulness of the dispatches in regard to Red and White offenses, issuing either from Berlin or Constantinople.

Great wars have always produced great generals and great liars. Knowing the impossibility of confirming dispatches, unscrupulous correspondents located somewhere near the war zone always reap a rich harvest. Many of our readers will recall the notorious Chefoo liar during the Russo-Japanese War, the Port Antonio liar, and the El Paso liar. The notorious Wolf Agency of evil repute during the World War is a recent instance.

Since the censorship has been abolished the Berlin and Constantinople liars are garnering fat returns. Those of Berlin are the more pernicious and, apparently, the better organized. The Lenin government now sends its dispatches to Berlin, where they are favorably received, published in the German press as statements of fact in relation with world news and wired to the capitals of as many neutral countries as will accept them. Absolute credence is apparently given by the Berlin politicians to the Red propaganda, suggesting a secret Red-German entente.

It is not difficult to understand the motive back of the circulation of the report of the destruction of Gen. Wrangel's army. It is intended to convey to the Russian prole-

SYRIA'S TROUBLES.

BY JAMES MAIN DIXON.

As far back as we can go in actual records there were sial civilizations on the Nile and the Euphrates, which met in conflict on the plains and valleys of Syria. The very name Armageddon, used in mystic prophecy of a world conflict, belongs to a valley not very far south of Sidon and Damascus, the ancient nucleus of cities which included in the era of Solomon, but in the latter part of his reign, was held rather as a nominal than a real possession. Later on it came under the dominion of Assyria. But Egypt, in her times of expansion, was always knocking at its gates; and finally, when the Moslem invasion from the Red Sea swept northward, Damascus was at once absorbed and its associations with Abraham and other patriarchs dear to Moslem religious traditions had the same center of the Moslem world.

During the long period when the caliphate was at Bagdad in Mesopotamia the connection of Damascus was naturally closer with the Euphrates than with the Nile; for one of the outlets to western traffic and the Mediterranean lay through the city. But in these later centuries, when Turkish muscle has widened the prosperity of Mesopotamia, the Turk has ceased to look westward for leadership or protection. And now that the Turk has fallen the south again claims it. When the Sheriff of Mecca broke with Constantinople, because of the outrageous shelling of the sacred cities, he made a bid to the British for co-operation on the following basis: A new Arab state was to be created, bounded by the Mediterranean, the Red Sea, the Indian Ocean, Persia and the 37th deg. of latitude, including Cilicia. It was an absurd and impossible demand; but an insufficient aid given by the Sheriff and his Bedouins in the war showed how impossible it was of realization. Emir Ali acknowledged that he could not fight any serious battles; "for the day I should lose a hundred of my men all these tribes would turn their backs on me." However, the moral weight of having the sovereign of the leading Holy City on the side of the Allies in the fight against a German-directed Constitutional made compromise demands or loans necessary. But the title of "Commander of the Faithful" which he finally assumed would remain a mere name without military power to back it.

Meanwhile one of the younger sons of the Sheriff, named Faisal, an ambitious soldier, formed the project of becoming Prince of Syria and was more or less supported by the British, and so recently as last March a Pan-Syrian congress held at Damascus declared Syria to be an independent state; and even in the ordinary commercial buildings, theaters, civic homes and new Federal buildings art is receiving very particular consideration. Quick action

Every hair of the beard has an oil coat. Palmolive lather instantly emulsifies that oil. Then the beard—a horsey substance—quickly absorbs the water. It absorbs 15 per cent of water within one minute after lathering. And that makes a wiry beard wax-like.

IACHINIST HAS GAINED 26 LBS.

tanac Did Wonders for This L. A. Man.

en Years of Indigestion Had Best of Him.

ow Feels Fine and Works Hard Every Day.

"Today my health seems to be at perfect," said Leo Gabler, a well-known machinist living at 805 Oroado Terrace, Los Angeles.

"Not only has my health been restored but I have actually gained twenty-six pounds in weight, and my gratitude to Tanac is unbounded.

"About ten years ago I began to suffer from indigestion, which kept getting worse in spite of all I could do.

"I couldn't eat a thing but what caused gas and nausea; I was very anxious and lost weight and strength continually.

"Finally I got to where I had such pegs ofloating up with gas and suffered so much that the perspiration would just pour off of my body and would fall over in a faint. After these spells I was always so weak and trembling for a day or two I was unable to do anything.

"I was on the road selling goods at that time and had a very severe attack of indigestion at Santa Fe; soon afterwards I had another at Springwood, Mo., which was so severe that friend had to carry me to Topeka, Kan., where I was then living.

"By this time I got into a condition that I had to quit work and nearly a year I was almost a confirmed invalid. It would be hard to think of any kind of medicine or treatment that I didn't take or any kind of diet that I didn't try. In fact, I spent enough money trying to get back my health to have bought a good automobile, but the results were always disastrous and I became completely discouraged.

"Then I got Tanac, and at first I didn't seem to get well with him, but if I had given it up, all at first thought of doing, it would have been a mistake of my life. I stuck to it, and by the time I had finished the first bottle my appetite was picking up and my food didn't disagree with me so much.

"Well, my stomach trouble is gone now and never before participated in such a rapid recovery.

"I have gained back my lost strength and am back at my old trade as a machinist, working hard all day and feeling fine all the time. When a medicine has done as much for a man as Tanac has for me, he can't help praising it."

POMONA, Sept. 15.—Fire, which for a time threatened to sweep within a short distance of Ganesha Park, burned over a large area of pasture land north of Spadra today and late this evening was still eating its way into the hills toward the north. Ranchers whose property was in the path of the flames fought the fire until its progress on the south and east sides of the area was stopped.

All of the employees of the city park department were mobilized about noon and were stationed on the west side of the Ganesha Park, ready to be ready to fight the fire if it spread in the direction of the city. There are about fifty men fighting the fire.

NEW PASTOR SOON.

A successor to Dr. C. R. Hudson, pastor of the Christian church who has resigned to become superintendent of the Christian churches of Southern California, will probably be chosen soon after the annual meeting of the church, which is to be held Sunday Oct. 13.

Dr. Hudson has been a leading member of the local ministry for many years and his leaving the city is a severe loss to the uplift workers.

"Then I got Tanac, and at first I didn't seem to get well with him, but if I had given it up, all at first thought of doing, it would have been a mistake of my life. Railroad Man Gives Good Advice

"Several years ago I was under treatment of a stomach specialist for five months, three weeks of which were spent in a hospital. An other stomach specialist told me I had gall stones and that an operation was necessary. I did not want to have this, I lost 45 lbs. in weight. Then I got a Mexican one day and a doctor of May's. Wonderfully Remedy and since taking it I have gained 16 lbs. and am feeling fine. I am advising others to try it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and relieves the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

GLENDALE NEWS.

GLENDALE, Sept. 15.—"Harding and Coolidge Republican Club" was organized last night, at a meeting of the members of the Glendale Union High School. Joseph Crail was the principal speaker for the evening. Plans were made to hold weekly meetings. W. E. Evans was elected chairman, Mrs. F. W. Wayward, secretary, and F. H. Vespar, treasurer.

INCREASED ENROLLMENT.

The enrollment at the grammar schools yesterday, the first day, showed an increase of more than 20 per cent over last year. The enrollment in 1919, this year, is $14.

Petitions are in circulation for the annexation of all the district the foothills. A majority of the property holders in Sycamore and Scholl canyons, east of the present city limits, have signed a petition for annexation. The petition is expected to come before the Board of Trustees at their next meeting.

HEADS COMMITTEE.

By the resignation of Mrs. E. H. Williford as president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and the appointment of Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson to fill that office, Mrs. Hutchinson becomes the chairman of the National Trustee now. Howard Committee, Mrs. Dorothy Phillips has been appointed secretary of the committee.

Salary of Official Raised After Taking Special Census.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 15.—Whether fraud was practiced in taking a special census in Anaheim township some months ago is a point that Dist.-Atty. L. A. West has been directed to investigate by the Board of Supervisors.

The special count was made to determine whether the population was large enough to warrant the demand of Justice Howard of Anaheim for an increase in his salary from $50 to $100 per month.

The township was reported as 9184 by the special enumerator and Howard's salary was advanced. The 1920 census returns give the township population as 6936 or 23% less than reported on the special census.

Called to the attention of the board by Supervisor S. H. Finley.

COMPLETE CO-OPERATION IS AN IM-PORTANT THING.

"Now that we have a wonderful Police Commission," he declared, "I shall encourage a larger participation by the affairs of the department for the good of the city."

Mr. Palmer, known as the "Father of Chiropractic," who is to arrive in Southern California on Saturday from his school at Davenport, Iowa, will give the first of a series of lectures in the hall room of the Alexandria. The lectures will be continued daily until the 25th inst.

Among the subjects of Dr. Palmer's lectures will be "Philosophy of Chiropractic," "Pit Work," "Majors and Minors," "The Wet and dry Man," "Men and Women" and "Adaptation in Psychology."

OTHER PROSPECTS.

In addition to his own company,

Chief Home may become associated with the Burke-Tillman Company, owners and operators of oil properties in Texas and Oklahoma.

Negotiations for this connection are still in progress, Chief Home said.

WILL BE ON LEAVE.

When Chief Home's resignation becomes effective October 1 he will cease to be head of the police department, but will remain a captain of detectives. That position will be occupied next to that of Chief, will be assured Chief Home by the Civil Service Commission granting him a leave of absence until next July 7, he explained yesterday.

"I have reached a point where

I cannot get more money in the police service and where my duties to my family require that I take advantage of an opportunity to provide them with a better place to go to have," Chief Home said last night.

"The formation of my company, together with other openings in thickness, is the latest road project being considered by the City Engineers. The City Engineers have been directed to prepare a map showing the proposed improvement, which is estimated to cost upwards of $160,000. Heavy trucking has left the thoroughfare in the worst condition in its history.

Batch of Husky Veterans and Last Year's "Frosh" Will Make Trojans Hard Bunch to B

HENDERSON HAS WESLEYANS OUT.

Eleven Noble Youths Answer
Football Call.

Larger Assemblage Expected
This Afternoon.

U.S.C. Early Prospects Look
Like the Goods.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

It looked like old times to see Coach Gloomy Gus Henderson pleasantly chasing the U.S.C. football boys up and down the Boulevard open-faced arena yesterday afternoon.

An assortment of eleven of the handsomest young men in the university answered the Trojan mentor's initial call for the annual gridiron crew. The prospects, you say, are not quite satisfactory to Coach Gus in view of the fact that the institution's doors are not thrown open for mental labor until next Monday.

Mostly Vets.

The men turned out were practically all veterans, all able-bodied varsity candidates. The greenhorns will make their debut under the piercing gaze of Clifton Herd.

Herd was out in full force yesterday, along with the newest of the Wesleyan tutors, Bill Hunter, helping Gloomy Gus whip the early birds into shape. Clifton looked familiar, but had you ever seen a man and a dashing pair of brand new pants. Herd paled a lot of his time while he was in the East this summer conversing with the big boys on football tactics. From Atlanta, St. Louis says the big "Frosh" coach, he obtained many valuable pointers, and the Chicago man has promised to keep him in mind this fall if any unusual plan comes up.

The Herd brothers of Harvard fame, as well as Eddie Casey and several of the other Crimson stars, contributed information on the famous system of the renowned coach, who has been invited to demonstrate to the yearlings.

None of the rough stuff, such as running on the ball and tackling the pass dummy, was apportioned the charge, which was more than enough to don their toggs yesterday. Henderson sent them spinning down the field after forward passes, and after a good scare of this lined them up for formations.

In the backfield were Herdham from last year's varsity, at full; fast little Eddie Leahy and long Paul Greene at halves, with James Woodward, the diminutive boxing general, filling the middle. Herd and Greene were the stars on Herd's freshman crew last year. Woodward was an understudy to McMillian at the pivotal berth.

On the flanks Toopin and dusty Gordon did service. Caswell, who has never played football before, but looks likely, and Baby Calland, the Seattle dwarf, filled in the tackle berths. Calland has been in the wire and has been a star in the 100-yard dash. He is not so much weight that he now sinks the scales at the 200-pound mark, striped. Byrd, sub on the varsity last year, and Wood, a large person from the law school, acted as guards, while "Slim Jim" Cox passed the spheroid.

Quite a Session.

A prolonged session of Gloomy's pet shift plays constituted most of the afternoon's workout, after which Henderson sent the boys around the arena for a few laps. A larger turnout is expected by Henderson this afternoon, several of the vets drifting around to eye the proceedings before time was called yesterday for the first pocket.

The stadium was studded with the stumpy full; James Smith, the last-spectacled end, and J. Boyle, the lanky tackle, were among this latter type of spectator.

It is hard to pass judgment on the Trojan crew, but judging by the apparent ability of yesterday's small concourse, it's going to take something more than the flip of a coin, the turn of a card or the roll of a die to give the lucky luck to batten the Cardinal and Gold football team this year.

BULL MONTANA TO WRESTLE SUNDAY.

Bull Montana, the handsome film favorite who won the gold medal at Vernon tonight in a finish wrestling match, has another mat battle booked for Sunday. On that day Bull will uphold his honors as champion in the grappling ring at the West of California Island, in the competition to be held at Selig Zoo by the local Italian colony in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the unification of Italy. The receipts will be given to the fund for the Needy Italians in Los Angeles. Pete Matana, who is managing Montana in this match also has lined up a boxing bout between Charley Roselli and Ted Frenchie.

Youngsters Get Good Practice.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENT

REDLANDS, Sept. 15.—Coach A. Cunningham of the University of Redlands issued a clarion call for football practice this morning, and this afternoon some thirty-odd husky youngsters donned football suits and cavorted about the field. The faces of more than half of the men of last year's team were noticeable by their absence and when asked about them Coach Cunningham shrugged his shoulders and murmured: "Gone! Such is this life."

Smith, the fullback last year, has decided to toy with the drill and corps and is taking a dental course in Los Angeles. Young is somewhere on the hilly deep. Randall is married and out of school. Powell, Unteriner and Fagg graduated.

SOME NEW MEN.

But there are some new men hot after the pines, and the prospects are more encouraging than might be thought, although no rose lining to the cloud can be seen. Simpson, who played on Redlands High last year; Thompson, a big chap from Oregon; Brooks, a sturdy freshman; and one player with Santa Ana High last year, and some other new men showed that they had seen a football somewhere.

Cunningham will give his men a very light workout this week in preparation for the opening game. Most of the men have been working outdoors all summer and are in good shape. By next week it is expected that there will be enough men to make three full squads, and then the real work of the season will begin.

SOUTH PUTS IT ON NORTH IN BOWLING.

CHAMPIONSHIP STAYS HERE;
DAD MEEK PLAYS HAVOC WITH MAPLES.

For the past two weeks interest of the bowling fans throughout the State has been focused upon the match between the all-stars of the north and the all-stars of the south for a purse of $1,000 and the championship of the State.

The first half of this match was rolled on the Dream alleys, San Jose, and was won by the southern delegation by 116 pins. The second half was rolled on the El Dorado alleys, this city, before the largest and most enthusiastic gathering of bowling fans ever assembled in Los Angeles. The contest was victorious, winning by the small margin of fifty-nine pins, giving them the match and championship by a total of 178 pins.

The star of the match was Dad Meek, who for many years brought cheer to the hearts of baseball fans along the Coast by his mighty slugging and pinch-hitting for the Angels. Dad had high score with 116 pins, and his son, Joe, and Irving, the pride of San Francisco, gave a fine exhibition of what can be done with the "old" mineralite when he toppled over the maple for a 134 average. Joe McCord of Vancouver, British Columbia, was the victor, winning by the small margin of fifty-nine pins, giving them the match and championship by a total of 178 pins.

LASKY ENGAGES STAR.

GARETH HUGHES WILL PLAY "SENTIMENTAL TOMMY."

By Grace Kingsley.

The announcement made a short time ago that James M. Barrie's most famous story, "Sentimental Tommy," to be filmed by Famous Film Co., had finally brought forth the palpitating question, "Who is to play the title role?" The question was answered yesterday by Jesse L. Lasky himself, when he announced that Gareth Hughes is the actor who has been cast for the role of the boy hero who makes one of the greatest boy characters in all fiction.

Young Hughes, who is famous on both stage and screen, has lately signed a new contract with Metro, but when the matter of finding a youth fitted not only as to looks, temperament and mental development for the role, but who must be fitted as well because of his fine ability to sing, it was decided that under consideration, it was decided that Gareth Hughes measured up to all the requirements, stringent as they were. Therefore, Metro was asked to loan the young actor to the Lasky organization for the production of the Barrie story.

The picturization of the story is to be made in New York, and Barrie himself will supervise the direction of it. John G. Schaefer will direct under supervision of the author. Gareth Hughes is now on his way to New York to play the role.

Though so accomplished an actor that his reputation is already quite international, Hughes is but twenty-one years old. He was born in Llanelli, Wales, and has been on the stage practically all his life. He is Shakespearean student, is said to know the entire English Shakespearean play, and desires his big ambition is to return to Wales and play "Hamlet" in his native tongue. He came to this country first, about five years, as a member of the Irish play company, and since appeared on both stage and screen.

Charlie Chaplin to England.

Charlie Chaplin isn't to return to Los Angeles following the settlement of affairs between himself and his wife, but Charlie Chaplin and his wife are to leave America.

This statement is in accordance with an announcement made by Chaplin to friends some months ago.

It seems that he considers he is in need of a complete change, the domestic trouble he had had having very greatly preyed on his mind.

It is said that certain picture interests, as well as private business interests in England are making big preparations to welcome their comedy idol.

Holubar Picture Dramatized.

Now comes the day when great pictures are to make what is going to happen if certain conditions are fulfilled, to Allen Holubar's latest and in all accounts greatest picture "Milestones," which is to be shown in "Stagecoach" according to the statement of Al Kaufman, independent producer and president of the Holubar Productions Company. In this stage production Dorothy Phillips will have the leading role, as she has in the picture, also.

The offer comes to Kaufman from the Selznick in New York, and Kaufman has agreed to bring "Milestones" to the metropolis within the next three weeks to launch the picture and confer with the theatrical producers in regard to its production on the stage.

Sid Franklin, director of the Sid Franklin Productions, of which Kaufman is president, will act as producer and Holubar and his wife on their trip. Franklin at present is directing "Sylvia Breamer" in "Parrot and Company."

Sylvia Breamer.

And speaking of Miss Breamer brings one right up to the fact that A. J. Callaghan, president of the Callaghan Productions, who is the independent producer of the top-computer of the picture world, has just signed Miss Breamer to play one of the leading roles in support of George Arliss in his picturization of "The Devil," and goes to New York on Sunday for the purpose of launching the picture activities on the production. Miss Breamer is to arrive in New York following her work in "Parrot and Company." Other members of the cast are Edmund Lowe, Lucy Cotton, Vincent Serrano, all famous to both stage and screen.

Callaghan Takes U Studios.

How one thing does lead to another to be sure. Speaking of Mr. Callaghan that interesting announcement reports he has leased the Universal studios at Fort Lee, N. J., and expects shortly to have two companies working there, in addition to the two working here. Yesterday afternoon he came into conference with a well-known actress here, with the view of starring her in a number of production here, but the announcement of his lease will not be given out until later, as at present he is working for another picture company.

Another important announcement of Callaghan is to the effect that George Arliss, following the filming of "The Devil," is to make a film version of his famous play, "Draffael." Both these pictures will be made in New York, and another company, known as an all-star company, will be engaged by Mr. Callaghan soon after he reaches New York, to make film versions of two well-known novels, negotiations with the authors of which are still going on.

"Well, maybe I do," answered the wily old sinner of the law, breaking off. "Beg your pardon, Kinki!" And he was gone.

Charles Ray's Next.

Now Charles Ray, popular film idol, is to take a walk at art via a James Whitcomb Riley story, to be held in New York on Saturday evening. The original story was located in the City Jail early yesterday. According to Police Detective Blackman, who made the arrest, Mrs. Carlow is charged with having taken articles valued at about $250. Mrs. Carlow yesterday denied the charges.

FRIENDS SAY WOMAN STOLE.

Charged with having stolen clothing and small amounts of jewelry from several of her women friends, Mrs. Marie Bush Carlow, 21 years of age, whose residence was located in the City Jail early yesterday. According to Police Detective Blackman, who made the arrest, Mrs. Carlow is charged with having taken articles valued at about $250. Mrs. Carlow yesterday denied the charges.

Two Warm Hearts
to Welcome Him

—The other one is the "glowing heart" of the LAWSON Odorless—the room heater with the inner-combustion chamber that emits out radiant heat; makes a room cozily warm in no time.

Different from all other gas stoves! No open flame! No smoky, devitalized room atmosphere! Operates on the direct heat principle—like the sun.

In strong rays penetrate, without overheating, the air you breathe. Heat is not carried to the ceiling.

Consumes all the gas, at high temperature. No fuel used and absolutely no odor. Heats from both sides.

Costs up little space, yet gives out more heat than ordinary gas stoves of two or three times its size and costs less to buy and less to operate.

Try the LAWSON Odorless—for health, for economy, in ample cheery warmth. You can heat the whole house with these powerful little heating marvels. An unusual size for largest to smallest room.

Let us let us demonstrate the LAWSON Odorless.

POLITICS.

THE WATCHMAN.

TREND OF POLITICIAN THOUGHT AND ACTION.

By the Sentry on His Beat.

A monster Republican rally in Los Angeles some time next month is among the campaign probabilities, from what I learn of the progress being discussed. For Harding and Coolidge in the South. Definite arrangements will hinge on the selection of a speaker of national caliber, probably former Senator Taft, Hiram Johnson or Senator Hays of Indiana. Local Republicans are eager to see such a rally arranged as an effective offset to the Cox-Hoodlum invasion and Chairman Crail, who is giving the organization work nicely under way at the Stowell Hotel headquarters, is heartily for it. He had the wires busy yesterday to find out which of his old friends might be available for this service, the effect of which undoubtedly would be to stimulate interest in both the national and State tickets.

Senator Johnson, I am told, wants to carry out some speaking plans in Southern California as part of his campaign and young Theodore Roosevelt, who has the national committee to book him for a few speeches in this section. Former service men are especially eager to give him here, and I believe their wish will be gratified. He has definitely made up his mind to make this his last campaign and has been doing some effective work in the East.

It has been definitely decided, am told, that Senator Harding will not come to the Pacific Coast in connection with the speaking tour now being arranged. An itinerary is being arranged which will bring him to Olympia, King City, St. Louis, but he will not get as far west as Los Angeles. This may prove disappointing to the thousands of Republicans who want to greet him here, but Republican leaders here feel that the trip should merely undertake a fatiguing journey merely to do a bit of handshaking.

Former Gov. Gillette dropped into town yesterday and announced himself ready to put his shoulder to the Republican wheel in Southern California. It is likely that he will make a speech or two for Harding and Coolidge when he is here. He was on the stump recently in Michigan and Wisconsin, and I understand to see such a rally arranged as an effective offset to the Cox-Hoodlum invasion and Chairman Crail, who is giving the organization work nicely under way at the Stowell Hotel headquarters, is heartily for it. He had the wires busy yesterday to find out which of his old friends might be available for this service, the effect of which undoubtedly would be to stimulate interest in both the national and State tickets.

Republican County Chairman Bartlett will confer today with Vice-Chairman Barbour and Mrs. R. W. Richardson, secretary of the newly organized county committee, to outline a program of campaign action. Mr. Bartlett's decision is that he intends to soft-pedal those colleagues inclined to push private aspirations has been received with hearty approval in local Republican circles. As I get it, the personnel of the new County Central Committee officers has selected in the campaign and making it clear that he considers the election of the Republican national and State tickets so important as to dominate every other consideration.

"I know no more effective way of conclusively demonstrating to you my feelings on this matter," he wrote, "that to say that if you desire my services in the campaign in this county, I shall be glad to

Regarding Mayne's supposed communication with outsiders, Dist. Atty. Woolwine said last night: "This man worked with certain public officers and his presence in the jail was an undoubted means of communication, was a menace to law and order."

Burbank Murder Suspects Taken Before Judge Willis.

Necessity of a justice court hearing in the case of Raphael Dell and Conrado Goya was eliminated yesterday when the county grand jury returned an indictment against both charging them and Niels Tveit with the murder of Robert Norman of the Marshall. Robert Norman of the Marshall, 42 years old, was found dead in his home at 1022 North Orange Avenue, Los Angeles, early yesterday morning. Henry Purrier, 26, of Burbank, was charged with the killing of Conrado Goya, 24, of Burbank, who was large, but the other two are still at large. The indictment was handed over to Judge Willis's court. Conrado Goya is still in a Burbank hospital suffering from his wounds.

DRUNK AT WHEEL IN CHAMBERS
Charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, F. M. M. Chauffeur, 42 years old, of 322 North Orange Avenue, was arrested at 10:30 P.M. sharp and taken into custody by Patrolman Harry. He is still in a Burbank hospital.

Clearings Again Pass $17,000,000 Mark; Bond Talk; Business Melange.

BY CHAPIN HALL

For the third time in the history of the Los Angeles Clearinghouse bank clearings yesterday passed the $17,000,000 mark. It's becoming a habit. Bankers are predicting a $20,000,000 day before the first of the year.

Yesterday's clearings were $17,023,893.94, an increase over the corresponding day a year ago of $7,315,045.14. The peak to date was attained last Monday when the clearings totaled $17,779,302.54.

EYES ON BOND MARKET.

No part of the business and financial readjustment now under way is more interesting to the financier or important to the investing public than the bond market. It is a veritable soother. It foretells the future, and mirrors the past. Upon the rise and fall of staple securities, our business prosperity is largely based.

Listen to an oracle, Mr. D. T. Baldwin & Co.:

TURN OF THE TIDE.
It seems as though we have finally reached the bottom of two very definite trends. The first is a condition which has taken place over twenty-five years. If you will go back in history you will find that during the Napoleonic wars, from 1785 to 1815, commodity prices rose continuously. From 1815 to 1840 commodity prices declined. From 1840 to 1875 commodity prices again increased. From 1875 to 1895 there was a consistent decline in commodity prices which was taken advantage of by some of our shrewd money lenders such as Russell Sage and Hetty Green.

The present period, however, is different. It has been invested in 1915, returned a very high rate of interest considering the security they obtained, but greater than the return they received in interest was the return which they received through the increased purchasing power of their dollar. They may have received 8% or 7% per cent interest on their money, or even 10 per cent, they received 100 per cent increase in the purchasing power of the dollar, which is the true measure of wealth.

It was during this period that we had the exactions against the bloated bond holder. Between 1895 and 1914 there was a steady decline in the purchasing power of the dollar. This was greatly accentuated by the war, so that the dollar of today purchased, approximately, what 15 cents would have purchased in 1895. In other words, if a person had loaned their money in 1895 at 4 per cent, which was a good rate at that time, and had saved most of their interest, they would find that today owing to the decline in the purchasing power of the dollar they had less real value after combining their principal and interest, than they had in 1895.

PRICES ARE DECLINING.

It is now certain that commodity prices are declining, and the man who buys securities yielding him 4 per cent, receives not only double the interest which he would have received on a similar investment in 1895, but he has an assurance that the purchasing power of his dollar will increase very rapidly during the next few years.

"Another fact which is of great importance is that life insurance companies are again coming into the market. During the war they so-called supported the government by buying bonds and short term notes. Upon the conclusion of the war they were confronted with the problem of claims which caused enormous losses and again kept them out of the market. By the time they were able to buy again many found it advisable to buy more government bonds in order to average down the cost on their claims. The companies are now coming into the market for bonds, and as soon as they have developed their full buying power their demands will have an appreciable effect on the market.

"According to the financial factors, there is a psychological factor which will probably prove vital during the next year. There is no doubt that labor is working more efficiently than it has at any time during the past year. This is due to the fact that under private operation of the industry a number of positions have been consolidated, and the more inefficient men have been let out. The natural result has been that for the first time in years it has been necessary for the working man to be a little better informed to hold his position. This has resulted in increased efficiency. The same is true in the manufacturing companies throughout the United States.

PROSPERITY AHEAD.

"Production always suffers when the laboring man feels that he can quit at any time and obtain an equally good job the next morning. It might well be said that the open position is equal to hell, because if the employer feels that he can discharge his employees without any question as to their ability, and get equally good men the next morning, there is danger of industrial unrest, owing to the injustice on the part of the employee.

"I firmly believe that in a very few months, when the crop moves

Official Count Shows Great Victory Won at Primary.

Augurs Well for Republican Ninth District Fight.

More Than Hundred and Ten Thousands Ballots Cast.

Official canvass of the 110,652 ballots cast in this county at the recent primary election was finished by the Board of Supervisors yesterday. Outstanding among the facts revealed by the complete returns is the decisive character of the victory won by Charles F. Van de Water of Long Beach over Congressman Randall, for the Republican nomination in the Ninth Congress District. The great strength with which the Republican nominee will go to the polls in November is shown by the fact that he received 13,674 of the 22,549 votes cast by Republicans in the District, his three opponents receiving altogether, only 17,486. Congressman Randall's total was 17,414. Ralph Criswell was 4,223, and J. W. Reagan's, 845.

The final count for District Attorney stands: Dist.-Atty., Woolwine, 52,455; C. S. Crall, 52,459; F. H. Moore, 52,385; Mrs. M. L. Moore, 52,161; J. W. Shenk, 50,104; L. E. Hawley, 47,825; Louis Myers, 46,618; W. J. Wood, 46,105; Grant Jackson, 45,277; C. S. Burnell, 36,925; J. W. Hardy, 31,284; C. E. Moore, 25,112; F. Thompson, 26,560; Miss Moore, 25,542; Ruben Schmidt, 22,556; Chaim Shapiro, 12,495.

For the short term in the Superior Court there were: W. W. Summerville, 45,280; Hartley Shaw, 26,622; H. G. Palmer, 14,038; P. H. Dougherty, 7,560.

Results for State legislative offices as determined by the semi-official corporation all confirmed by the final canvass.

DOUBT THAT SLAIN YOUTH IS ANGELENO.

Relatives Question Police Identification of One of Three Kansas Victims.

Relatives of Edward A. Carwile, a Los Angeles youth, who was reported slain near Arcola, Kan., refused to believe yesterday that one of three decapitated bodies found on a railroad track there is that of the local boy.

Mrs. G. Carwile, 392 North Boulevard, the lad's mother, though confined to her bed following the receipt of several telegrams from Kansas police officials, stated that she would not believe one of the three dead men was her son until she had been notified of his actual identification.

Edward A. Carwile, a sergeant-major in the aviation service during the war, had not visited his home town for more than a year. He had been employed as a newspaper reporter on the Journal at Peoria, Ill. After his discharge from the Army, he failed to return to his home in time.

Those who said he had been murdered stated that they were killed by a train after going to sleep on the tracks.

GRAND ARMY FORCES

START EAST TODAY.

THOUSANDS WILL DEPART ON SAFETY LAKE SPECIAL: ONE
TRAIN NOW EN ROUTE.

Responding to the stirring call of the bugle and drum, as in the days of '61 and '65, more than 3800 veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and members of allied organizations will leave Los Angeles this morning to attend the national encampment at Indianapolis, the 19th to the 25th inst. "For many of the old soldiers the years have passed quickly and they will travel to meet their comrades from other States for the last time.

A special train bearing the veterans of the Women's Relief Corps, the Department of the Sons of Veterans and their auxiliaries and the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, in command of Mrs. A. Thompson of Santa Monica, department president, will leave the Los Angeles station this morning to join the train of Department Commander Kellogg at Ogden. At 6:15 last evening a train of twenty coaches in charge of Department Commander William H. Hixson, a passenger from the Southern Pacific station for Oakland, where it was scheduled to join Department Commander Kellogg's train and journey East from there.

All departments in command of Senior Vice-Department Commander G. M. Burlingame, while Russell C. Martin, past department commander, is in charge of the train bearing the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. Among the passengers on the latter train are C. B. Wilson, senior vice-commander-in-chief, second in command of the national organization, and Mrs. Wilson and William H. New, member of the Council of Administration.

MEET HERE NEXT WEEK.

Delegates of Red Cross Chapters
Will Hold Two-day Conference.

Delegates of the Southern California chapters and the Arizona chapters of the American Red Cross Society will hold a conference here on the 29th and 31st inst. at the close of the convention of the association now being held in San Francisco. There are thirty-seven chapters in California and sixteen in Arizona; all of which will be represented at the joint council here.

In addition to the program, all of whom are Pacific division workers and department heads, except Dr. E. A. Peterson, national director of the health service, will include: General manager of the Pacific division; Kathleen Booth, director of salvage and shop work; J. J. McBride of the military relief department; Dr. G. H. Richardson of the medical relief department; Margaret Bistrig of the accounting bureau; Lillian White of the nursing department; Mrs. H. A. Kleugel of the Junior Red Cross; Mrs. E. Bangs of the department of publicity and speakers, and Grace Graham of the department of civilian relief.

Speakers at the convention, all of whom are Pacific division workers and department heads, except Dr. E. A. Peterson, national director of the health service, will include: General manager of the Pacific division; Kathleen Booth, director of salvage and shop work; J. J. McBride of the military relief department; Dr. G. H. Richardson of the medical relief department; Margaret Bistrig of the accounting bureau; Lillian White of the nursing department; Mrs. H. A. Kleugel of the Junior Red Cross; Mrs. E. Bangs of the department of publicity and speakers, and Grace Graham of the department of civilian relief.

MUST PEEL POTATOES
BECAUSE HE SPEEDED.

Gall Kreis, age 21 years, a mechanic of Ingleside, will have ten days of leisure in the County Jail in San Dimas, where he would have been had he continued on his motorcycle at the rate he admitted going on Long Beach Boulevard on the 16th inst. County Motorcycle Officer, George K. Kline, said Kreis, who is sixty miles an hour. Justice Brown looked at the complaint twice and then gave Kreis a little talk, in which he advised him to chop off about thirty feet of his motorcycle chain. It was said, will be introduced to the art of peeling potatoes in the jail kitchen.

NEGLIGENCE COSTS HIM FIFTY
DOLLARS. The 240 So. Figueroa street, was fined $50 by Judge Hart at San Dimas yesterday on a plea of guilty to leaving his camp fire uncovered in San Dimas Canyon. The forest rangers are keeping a sharp eye on violators of the regulations of the national forest. The average cost to the offenders is the figure assessed by Judge Hart.
